Manager, Performance Distribution Services

Morley is one of the UK's largest asset managers with over £165 billion under management. AVIVA is the world's 5th largest Insurer. AVIVA recently announced the creation of AVIVA Investors, with offices in 15 locations and over 1300 employees. This takes AVIVA Investors into the top 20 asset managers in the world.

We are now seeking an experienced Performance professional, who wants to use their analytical and technical skills to help take our Performance team to the next level and offer added value to internal and external clients.

You will enjoy providing consultancy advice to our distribution functions whilst taking an active involvement in the evolution of our performance measurement process. This is a role that will offer a genuine challenge to someone keen to make their mark in a top performing team.
